Dear visiting priest:

It is our privilege to extend a complimentary room to you so long as you celebrate mass daily. The time we regularly set aside for mass is at 8:30 a.m. Please email a letter from your Superior that you are a Roman Catholic Priest in good standing to the Diocese of Santa Barbara/Los Angeles and a second copy of that letter to Hailey Smith at hsmith@buschgroup.org.

If there is anything that you need for Mass or if you have questions during your stay, please contact Natalie Reardon, our on-site sacristan at the front desk or at nreardon@bacararesort.com.

1. The chapel is always open. The code to the door is 3039. It will lock behind you, so memorize that code.
2. Corporals, purificators and hand towels are in the sacristy. Please put soiled/ used linens in the laundry hamper.
3. The lectionary, sacramentary and other books should be on a shelf or they may have been left in the chapel.
4. A lighter is available to light the candles.
5. A candle snuffer is available to extinguish burning candles.
6. You are welcome to reserve the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle. However, it is your solemn duty to consume the Sacrament upon departure, unless you have personally agreed to leave the Sacrament for the next priest who is staying. There is an adoration door opened by the key. The key for the tabernacle is on the top right-hand drawer. If for some reason you misplace their key please contact Natalie Reardon.
7. If you are going to reserve the Blessed Sacrament, there are sanctuary candles either in the sacristy or in the lamp stand in the chapel.
8. There should be white wine in the refrigerator and a corkscrew, if necessary.
9. When praying the Eucharistic Prayer, The Bishop of the Diocese of Santa Barbara/Los Angeles is Archbishop Jose Gomez.
10. If there is a mass intention, we will leave it on the altar or on the table top in the sacristy. Otherwise, you are free to select your own mass intention.
11. All of the items are available for the Tridentine Rite of Mass including the books, vestments, etc.
12. If you would like, you are welcome as part of our clergy hospitality program to take your lunch and dinner meals in the staff room (free of charge). Contact the front desk for location and times. Alternatively, you may also visit any of the restaurants or cafés around the resort (at an additional cost). The Blend is the most cost effective restaurant and they serve breakfast, lunch and snacks. You can also take advantage of a 30% discount for priests excluding alcohol purchases. This is for priests only, not for additional guest that may be with you during your stay.

Please spread the word to your fellow Roman Catholic priests in good standing of this privilege that is also available at our sister property, the Meritage Resort and Spa in Napa. For more information please visit www.clergyhospitality.org.

If there is space available we may offer a second room for a Roman Catholic Priest or a Double Queen room for you and your colleague.

Thanks again for your service to the Lord.

Kind regards,

Hailey Smith
